The Effort to Blacken Character—The Odd Fellows' Grand Encampment—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor—New Report About the Narrow Gauge Road—Prominent Men Will Be the Orphans.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 11.—The Wilmington correspondent of the News and Observer writes a long letter, from which the following is taken:

Surely but slowly the Republicans, opposed to and mad with W. H. Chadbourn, because he wrote a letter in the last campaign, are trying to weave a network of wrong around him. The first chapter was enacted when a postoffice agent was sent here, and the public generally believe with specific orders to investigate Chadbourn's doings. No one that knows what a yard of cotton at 5 cents a yard would cost, believes that W. H. Chadbourn was guilty of robbing or defrauding the Government out of one cent, or that he was in such dire straits for money, that he would have sold a yard of cotton at 5 cents a yard. Chadbourn, before he came to Raleigh, was a man of means and better mail facilities. But the true reason that Chadbourn resigned was that campaign letter. A prominent Republican stated, to-day, that Senator Pritchard said that two weeks before the election, that he made no difference which way the election went, that he would have Chadbourn removed, and the Republican furthermore stated, that he was the only political promise he had ever known the Senator to keep.

ODD FELLOWS' ENCAMPMENT.
The Grand Encampment, which held its annual session at Charlotte, has adjourned. It will hold its next meeting in Wilmington on the third Wednesday in August of next year. The officers elected were:

Grand Patriarch, Lewis C. Howlett, of Greensboro; Grand High Priest, Geo. Green, of New Bern; Grand Senior Warden, W. E. Faison, of Raleigh; Grand Junior Warden, R. H. Ramsey, of Charlotte; Grand Scribe, R. J. Jacobs, of Wilmington; Grand Treasurer, T. W. Blake, of Raleigh.

The Grand Patriarch made the following appointments:

THE KNIGHTS OF HONOR.
After a pleasant session at Concord, the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Honor adjourned Friday afternoon. The officers elected for the next two years were:

Grand Dictator, J. P. Whitaker, Jr., of Winston; Grand Vice Dictator, R. R. Jones, of New Bern; Grand Assistant Dictator, N. D. Foster, of Concord; Grand Chaplain, L. A. Mills, of King's Mountain; Grand Secretary, W. J. Newbold, of La Grange; Grand Treasurer, C. C. Carlin, of Statesville; Grand Marshal, S. C. Scholfield, of Davidson; Grand Guardian, W. H. Carstensen, of Wilmington; Grand Sentinel, D. E. Boyette, of Greensboro; Grand Trustee, T. E. Klutz, of Salisbury; Grand Chaplain, of New Bern; G. S. Hanes, of James City; Supreme Representative, J. T. Le Grande, and T. P. Klutz, Alternates N. L. Shaw and C. C. Carlin.

THE NARROW GAUGE RAILROAD.
The report has gained credence here that William A. Barber, of New York, has taken up the matter of the bonds of the Carolina and Northwestern railroad, a narrow gauge line extending from Lenoir, N. C., to Chester, S. C. The road will be converted into a standard gauge and extended across the Lenoir and Watauga rivers to Bristol, and will be operated by the Seaboard Air Line, which connects with the Carolina and Northwestern at Chester.

The route to be chosen from Lenoir toward Bristol would be by way of Winston, and to Lenoir, about 16 miles of extra heavy, and consequently very expensive work, costing in the neighborhood of $500,000. At Lenoir river they would connect with the Lenoir and Watauga river, a narrow gauge 12 miles to Bristol, running to Cranberry, N. C., and at the latter place with the East Tennessee and Western North Carolina, also narrow gauge. The latter two roads could be widened to standard gauge and connect at Elizabeth City with the Virginia and Southwestern and the other to Bristol.

PROMINENT MEN WILL BE THE ORPHANS.
A letter from Winston says: A letter received to-day from Mr. W. J. Jones, who has just returned from Baltimore, says that Rev. Dr. Crosby not nearly so well as when he went to the hospital, but his physician still holds out encouragement.

Dr. R. H. Gray, one of Winston's leading physicians, is at Deer Park Hotel, in Maryland. He has been in bad health for some time, but a letter to-day from Mrs. Gray says he is improving.

FOR THE ORPHANS.
Net receipts from Masonic picnic at Millsville Thursday were about $600. The excursion from Winston cleared $10. The entire amount goes to the Oxford Orphanage.

IDENTITY.
DEATH—PERSONALS—THE LATE CAPT. CONKLIN.
(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Edenton, N. C., Aug. 12.—After an illness of only a few weeks Mrs. E. W. Burton departed this life at her home, on Broad street, Friday morning, in the 54th year of her age. She has been an exemplary member of the M. E. Church since childhood. She leaves a husband, five children, a number of relatives and a host of friends to mourn their irreparable loss. She was a most dutiful, helpful and devoted wife, a wise, tender and self-denying mother, a kind, considerate and charitable neighbor. Truly the world was made better by her having lived in it.

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish form after marriage. The bearing of children is very detrimental to the mother's shapeliness. This can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend. It comes, as this scientific medicine prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of form. Mother's Friend also obviates all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is a woman's greatest blessing, and thousands gratefully tell of its good it has done them. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this great remedy, will be sent free to any address by THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR COMPANY, Atlanta, Georgia.
